

Some nouns are made up of more than one word.

Examples: Atlantic Ocean      sister-in-law

In the following sentences, underline all the nouns of more than one word.

1. Uncle Robert joined the police force.
2. When we visited San Francisco, we saw the Golden Gate Bridge.
3. Mrs. Grady deposited her money in the Valley National Bank.
4. My mother-in-law owns the Golden Crust Bakery.
5. We saw Ronald McDonald at Legend City Park.
6. The Saint Bernard is famous for rescuing lost travelers.
7. The lowest and hottest spot in the United States is Death Valley.
8. The Fourth of July is usually a very warm day.
9. Judy played ping-pong with Aunt Ellen.
10. Cousin George works at the post office.
11. My father-in-law works for the fire department.
12. Stan Smith has an office in the Chrysler Building.
13. The Maricopa Freeway passes through Phoenix, Arizona.

You have underlined nouns of more than one word. On a separate sheet of paper, list five other nouns that appear in the sentences.