

Underline nouns you can see, touch, smell, or hear. Circle nouns that name a feeling or an idea.

Eskimo Boy

Paku felt happiness as he put on his gloves and parka. He turned and smiled at his mother. He had hopes of helping his father catch a salmon for dinner. His hunger for salmon was amazing. With joy, he followed his father to the sled. His father looked at him with love as he lifted the little boy onto the sled.

Great White Shark

The explorers felt fear as they spotted the white shark. They had a desire to turn their boat around because they feared for their safety. Horror came over them as they watched the shark move toward them.

The idea of being eaten by a white shark was frightening. With patience, they guided the boat back to shore. It takes courage to travel next to a great white shark.

Write six nouns that name a feeling or an idea.

---

---

On a separate sheet of paper, use each noun you have written in a different sentence.