

Hey, Hey It's the Monkeys

THE STORY

Four monkeys named Jason, Paul, George and Roger played four different musical instruments. They played a cello, a violin, a trumpet and a guitar. When they were not making music, the monkeys had four different favorite activities. These activities were jumping, hanging, climbing and swinging. The monkeys had four different favorite foods. These favorite foods were meat loaf, chicken, hamburger and spaghetti. Based on the clues, match the monkeys with their musical instruments, their favorite activities and their favorite foods.

THE CLUES

1. The spaghetti-loving monkey played the violin and enjoyed swinging.
2. The chicken-loving monkey enjoyed hanging and played the guitar.
3. Paul and George did not enjoy swinging or hanging.
4. Jason did not play the violin.
5. Paul did not play the trumpet, enjoy jumping, or like meat loaf.
